

Satya Widya Yudha

Satya W. Yudha successfully secured a seat as a Member of Parliament in two terms (2009 – 2014) and (2014-2019) for East Java district with Golkar Party.

He currently serves as Vice Chairman of Golkar Party Faction in The House of Representatives and previously he sits as Deputy Chairman of Commission VII and currently he remains at that commission as a member overseeing Energy, Mineral Resources, Environment, Research & Technology. He also chairs The Green Economy Caucus since 2012, with member from different Party and Commission.

Born in Kediri, East Java, He holds MS in Ocean Engineering from Sepuluh November Institute of Technology (ITS) in Surabaya and Master of Science from Cranfield University School of Industrial and Manufacturing Science at Bedford, United Kingdom in Project Quality Management for the Oil & Gas Industry. He also attended Executives Development Program at Blavatnik School of Government at Oxford University.

Before join the parliament, He previously held various executives position in Energy companies before assuming his current position in various countries such as US, UK, China, Vietnam, Indonesia.

He writes and speaks extensively on Indonesia and global energy and environment issues to the various forum such as COP 21 Paris 2015, Asia Public Policy Forum - Harvard Kennedy School, Oxford University -NRGI Conference 2015, Energy Security workshop in Washington D.C 2015, Indonesian Focus Conference at Michigan State University, Asian Statesmen's Forum, Pacific Energy Summit Conferences in (2011-2015) in Jakarta, Vancouver, Seoul and Beijing. He led the Parliament delegation to various events such as the Parliament WTO Meeting in Geneva in 2011 and the Parliament Geothermal Special Committee to New Zealand in 2014.